Simla, the 29th April 1892.

No. 9. – The following Statute is published for general information :

ARMY (ANNUAL) ACT, 1892.

[55 VICTORIA, CHAPTER 2.]

An Act to provide during twelve months for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army.

[29TH MARCH 1892.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and fifty-four thousand and seventy-three men, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within Her Majesty's Indian possessions :

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of this realm that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in Her Majesty's fleet and naval service under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid :

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or vessels, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the Government of Her Majesty's forces by sea :

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm ; yet nevertheless it being requisite for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert Her Majesty's Service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :

44 & 45 Vict., c. 58.

And whereas the Army Act will expire in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two on the following days :—

(a) In the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, on the thirtieth day of April ; and

(b) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, on the thirty-first day of July ; and

(c) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, on the thirty-first day of December :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Army (Annual) Act, 1892.

2. (1) The Army Act shall be and remain in force during the periods hereinafter mentioned, and no longer, unless otherwise provided by Parliament; that is to say—

Army Act (44 & 45 Vict., c. 58) to be in force for specified times.

(a) Within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, from the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two to the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, both inclusive; and

(b) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, from the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two to the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, both inclusive; and

(c) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, from the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, both inclusive:

and the day from which the Army Act is continued in any place by this Act is in relation to that place referred to in this Act as the commencement of this Act.

(2). The Army Act, while in force, shall apply to persons subject to military law, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions.

(3). A person subject to military law shall not be exempted from the provisions of the Army Act by reason only that the number of the forces for the time being in the service of Her Majesty, exclusive of the marine forces, is either greater or less than the number hereinbefore mentioned.

3. There shall be paid to the keeper of a victualling house for the accommodation provided by him in pursuance of the Army Act the prices specified in the schedule to this Act.

Prices in respect of billeting.

Amendments of Army Act.

4. Whereas by section forty-four of the Army Act the punishment of penal servitude when inflicted is required to be for a term not less than five years, and it is expedient to amend that section so as to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the Penal Servitude Act, 1891; be it therefore enacted that—

THE MEDICAL ACT, 1886.

[49 & 50 VICTORIA, CHAPTER 48.]

An Act to amend the Medical Acts.

[25TH JUNE, 1886.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title and construction.

1. This Act may be cited as the Medical Act, 1886, and shall be construed as one with the Medical Acts.

PART I.

ADMISSION TO MEDICAL PRACTICE AND CONSTITUTION OF GENERAL COUNCIL.

Qualifying Examinations.

Examination before registration.

2. On and after the appointed day a person shall not be registered under the Medical Acts in respect of any qualification referred to in any of those Acts unless he has passed such qualifying examination in medicine, surgery and midwifery as is in this Act mention ed.

3. (1). A qualifying examination shall be an examination in medicine, surgery and midwifery held, for the purpose of granting a diploma or diplomas conferring the right of registration under the Medical Acts, by any of the following bodies, that is to say,—

Qualifying examinations held by medical authorities.

(a) any university in the United Kingdom or any medical corporation legally qualified at the passing of this Act to grant such diploma or diplomas in respect of medicine and surgery; or

(b) any combination of two or more medical corporations in the same part of the United Kingdom who may agree to hold a joint examination in medicine, surgery and midwifery, and of whom one at least is capable of granting such diploma as aforesaid in respect of medicine, and one at least is capable of granting such diploma in respect of surgery; or

(c) any combination of any such university as aforesaid with any other such university or universities, or of any such university or universities with a medical corporation or corporations, the bodies forming such combination being in the same part of the United Kingdom.

(2). The standard of proficiency required from candidates at the said qualifying examinations shall be such as sufficiently to guarantee the possession of the knowledge and skill requisite for the efficient practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery; and it shall be the duty of the General Council to secure the maintenance of such standard of proficiency as aforesaid; and for that purpose such number of inspectors as may be determined by the General Council shall be appointed by the General Council, and shall attend, as the General Council may direct, at all or any of the qualifying examinations held by any of the bodies aforesaid.

(3). Inspectors of examinations appointed under this section shall not interfere with the conduct of any examination, but it shall be their duty to report to the General Council their opinion as to the sufficiency or insufficiency of every examination which they attend and any other matters in relation to such examination which the General Council may require them to report; and the General Council shall forward a copy of every such report to the body or to each of the bodies which held the examination in respect of which the said report was made, and shall also forward a copy of such report, together with any observations thereon made by the said body or bodies, to the Privy Council.

(4). An inspector of examinations appointed under this section shall receive such remuneration, to be paid as part of the expenses of the General Council, as the General Council, with the sanction of the Privy Council, may determine.

4. (1). If at any time it appears to the General Council that the standard of proficiency in medicine, surgery and midwifery, or in any of those subjects or any branch thereof, required from candidates at the qualifying examinations held by any of the bodies for the time being holding such examinations, is insufficient, the General Council shall make a representation to that effect to the Privy Council, and the Privy Council, if they think fit, after considering such representation, and also any objections thereto made by any body or bodies to which such representation relates, may by order declare that the examinations of any such body or bodies shall not be deemed to be qualifying examinations for the purpose of registration under the Medical Acts; and Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, if upon further representation from the General Council or from any body or bodies to which such order relates it seems to Her expedient so to do, shall have power at any time to revoke any such order.

Withdrawal from medical authorities of right to hold qualifying examinations.

(2). During the continuance of any such order the examinations held by the body or bodies to which it relates shall not be deemed qualifying examinations under this Act, and any diploma granted to persons on passing such examinations shall not entitle such persons to be registered under the Medical Acts, and any such body shall not choose either separately or collectively with any other body a member of the General Council, and the member (if any) for the time being representing such body in the General Council shall, unless he was chosen by such body collectively with any other body not subject to an order under this section, be suspended from taking part in the proceedings of the General Council.

Qualifying examinations held by medical corporation, with assistant examiners.

5. (1). If a medical corporation represents to the General Council that it is unable to enter into such combination as is in this Act mentioned for the purpose of holding qualifying examinations, and the General Council are satisfied that the said medical corporation has used its best endeavours to enter into such combination as aforesaid, and is unable to do so on reasonable terms, it shall be lawful for the General Council from time to time, if they think fit, on the application of such corporation to appoint any number of examiners to assist at the examinations which are held by such corporation for the purpose of granting any diploma or diplomas conferring on the holders thereof, if they have passed a qualifying examination, the right of registration under the Medical Acts.

(2). It shall be the duty of the said assistant examiners to secure at the said examinations the maintenance of such standard of proficiency in medicine, surgery and midwifery as is required under the foregoing provisions of this Act from candidates at qualifying examinations, and for that purpose the said assistant examiners shall have such powers and perform such duties in the conduct of those examinations as the General Council may, from time to time, by order prescribe; and any examination held subject to the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be a qualifying examination within the meaning of this Act.

(3). Assistant examiners appointed under this section shall receive such remuneration, to be paid by the medical corporation at whose examinations they take part, as the General Council determine.

(4). A medical corporation shall have power to admit to its examinations assistant examiners appointed under this section, and to conduct its examinations in accordance with the requirements of this section and of any orders made thereunder, anything in any Act or charter relating to such corporation to the contrary notwithstanding.

Effect of Registration.

Privileges of registered persons.

6. On and after the appointed day a registered medical practitioner shall, save as in this Act mentioned, be entitled to practise medicine, surgery and midwifery in the United Kingdom, and (subject to any local law) in any other part of Her Majesty's dominions, and to recover in due course of law in respect of such practice any expenses, charges in respect of medicaments or other appliances, or any fees to which he may be entitled, unless he is a fellow of a college of physicians, the fellows of which are prohibited by bye-law from recovering at law their expenses, charges or fees, in which case such prohibitory bye-law, so long as it is in force, may be pleaded in bar of any legal proceeding instituted by such fellow for the recovery of expenses, charges or fees.

(2). The Privy Council, before considering such representation, shall cause the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

(3). If either House of Parliament, within forty days (exclusive of any period of adjournment for more than one week) next after any such representation has been laid before such House, present an address to Her Majesty declaring that such representation or any part thereof ought not to be carried into effect, no further proceedings shall be taken in respect of the representation in regard to which such address has been presented; but if no such address is presented by either House of Parliament within such forty days as aforesaid, the Privy Council may, if they think fit, report to Her Majesty that it is expedient to give effect to such representation, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to give effect to the same, and any Order in Council so made shall be of the same validity as if it had been enacted in this Act.

Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 7 P. W., dated 18th February 1892.

The following regulations, which are the outcome of the recommendations of the Public Service Commission for the future appointment of officers in India to the Engineer Establishment of the Public Works Department, have been approved by the Secretary of State for India:

I.—A Provincial Service recruited in India shall be established on a rate of pay differing from that of the Imperial Service recruited in England. This Service shall be under the leave rules of Indian Services, Chapter XIV, and under the General Pension Rules, Part IV, of the Civil Service Regulations. In all other respects there shall be no distinction between the members of this Service and those of the Imperial Service.

II.—The rates of pay of the Provincial Service shall be as follows:

	Rs.
Chief Engineer, 1st Class ...	2,500	These are the rates of pay of the present establishment, and will continue to be the rates for both Imperial and Provincial officers in these classes.
" 2nd " ...	2,000
" 3rd " ...	1,800

	Rs.
Superintending Engineer, 1st Class	1,050
" 2nd "	900
" 3rd "	750
Executive Engineer, 1st Grade	650
" 2nd "	550
" 3rd "	475
" 4th "	400
Assistant Engineer, 1st Grade	350
" 2nd "	250

II.—The recruitment for the Provincial Service shall be—

(a) from students of the Indian Colleges, being natives of India as defined in the statute 33 Vict., cap. 3, section 6; and

(b) from Upper Subordinates of the Public Works Department.

The number of appointments annually shall for the present be 12 and 13 in alternate years, and they shall be distributed approximately in the ratio of 8 to 4 or 8 to 5 between the two classes, namely, students of the Colleges and the Upper Subordinates.

The detailed distribution of the appointments shall be approximately as follows:

To lists directly under the Government of India, excluding Bengal ...	Five apprentices from Thomason College, Rurki, and three Upper Subordinates.
To the Bengal list ...	One apprentice from Sibpur, and, in alternate years, one Upper Subordinate.
To the Madras list ...	One from the Madras Engineering College, and, in alternate years, one Upper Subordinate.
To the Bombay list ...	One L. C. E. of the Bombay University, who has kept six terms in a School or College of Civil Engineering recognised by that University, and, in alternate years, one Upper Subordinate.

This distribution of the appointments shall be strictly followed, provided, on the one hand, that the prescribed number of students from each college qualify for the appointments on each list; and, on the other hand, that there are in the opinion of the Government of India, or Madras, or Bombay, or Bengal, as the case may be, Upper Subordinates who possess the necessary qualifications. If there is a deficiency in the number of qualified candidates of either the student or the Upper Subordinate Class, or of any of the Colleges, the full number of appointments on a list may be made up from the other class, or from some other college the students of which are qualified.

IV.—Recruits from the Indian colleges shall be appointed as apprentices on Rs. 100 a month, and shall remain on probation until they have proved their thorough fitness for service in the Department. They shall then be promoted to 2nd grade Assistant Engineer on Rs. 250, and shall be required to pass the examination laid down in Public Works Code, Volume I, Chapter II, paragraphs 12-14, before promotion to 1st grade Assistant Engineer. If they are not recommended within three years for promotion to 2nd grade Assistant Engineer, they shall be liable to removal from the Department.

V.—The men of the Upper Subordinate Class to be selected annually for special promotion to the Provincial Establishment shall be ordinarily Sub-Engineers chosen for their ability and merit. These officers shall be posted to a suitable grade of the Provincial Service, and may be granted a personal allowance to protect them from loss of pay. Military Upper Subordinates shall not be appointed unless they consent to forego their military rank.

VI.—After an officer has been appointed under these regulations to the Provincial Service in a grade not below that of Assistant Engineer, 2nd grade, he shall belong to the general graded establishment of Engineers. He shall, if qualified, rise in the grades by promotion, and, as regards the higher grades, by special selection under the present rules, and shall receive the rate of salary laid down in regulation II above according to his grade.

2. Students of the Rurki, Sibpur, Poona, and Madras Colleges, who, on the date of this Resolution, have begun the courses of training for the appointments allotted to those Colleges in Resolution of 13th December 1884, and who, within three years from date of this Resolution, succeed in obtaining appointments, shall, on admission to the Engineer Establishment, be entitled to pay and pension under the rules hitherto obtaining. As regards leave, they shall be subject to the rules laid down for the Indian services. But these provisions shall only apply to the number of appointments, namely 9, allotted by the Resolution of 13th December 1884. In respect of all appointments above that number these regulations shall take effect at once.

3. The names of the students at each college who have on the date of this Resolution entered upon the course, together with information as to the date of entering the college, and the date on which they can compete for the several appointments under the Resolution of 1884, should be forwarded to the Government of India for information.

ORDER.—Ordered, that the above Resolution be circulated to the Local Governments, Administrations, and officers noted in the margin, and that it be published in Part I of the Gazette of India.

To His Excellency The Most Honourable The Governor-General of India in Council.

MY LORD MARQUIS,

Monthly payment of absentee allowances and pensions of Civil, Military, and other officers.

It was recently decided that the practice of making monthly, instead of quarterly, payments of the furlough pay and pensions of Civil and Military officers, and members of the Ecclesiastical, Marine, and Pilot Establishments, should be adopted generally at the Home Treasury; and arrangements have now been made to carry out that decision.

2. I enclose a memorandum* by the Accountant-General at this Office, showing the details of the arrangements in question; and I request that you will take the necessary measures for making the change of system generally known.

*Dated 22nd September 1892.

I have the honour to be,

MY LORD MARQUIS,

Your Lordship's most obedient humble Servant,

(Signed) KIMBERLEY.

ENCLOSURE.

Memorandum by the Accountant-General, India Office, dated 22nd September 1892.

I have to request that you will be good enough to inform the authorities in India that the furlough pay and pensions of all Civil and Military officers, and of members of the Ecclesiastical, Marine, and Pilot establishments, will henceforth be issued at the Home Treasury monthly in arrear.

The quarterly dates to which Military (including that of military officers in civil employ), Medical (including annuities), Ecclesiastical, and Marine pay, pension, etc., will be made up, will, for the furture, be 15th February, 15th May, 15th August, and 15th November; whilst the quarterly dates to which civil pay, annuities, and pensions will be made up will be 15th January, 15th April, 15th July, and 15th October, respectively. Payment will in each case be made on or after the day following.

Advances (omitting shillings and pence) of one-third, approximately of the net quarterly amount will be payable on the 16th of the first and second month of each quarter, and the balance of the three months, less Income Tax and other deductions (if any), on the quarterly dates on which the pay will in future be payable as specified above.
